- 5.3. Need to Know: UPSI must be handled on a 'need to know' basis. Such information should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information for legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations. However, such communication on need-to-know basis should be exchanged only through official channel of communication and not via any other medium such as personal E-mail ID, social media, WhatsApp etc.
- 5.4 All physical files containing confidential information will be kept secure and under lock and key. Computer files will have adequate security of login and passwords.
- 5.5 Any person who gets access to UPSI on 'need to know' basis for legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations shall maintain confidentiality of the said UPSI and will be deemed to be an Insider and shall abide with the Regulations & the Code.

6. TRADING WINDOW

Trading Window" means a trading period for trading in company's securities as specified by the Compliance Officer from time to time. The Trading window shall be closed when the Compliance Officer determines that a designated person or class of designated persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

Other than the period(s) for which the Trading Window is closed as prescribed hereunder, the same shall remain open for Trading in the Securities.

Unless otherwise specified by the Compliance Officer, the Trading Window for Trading in Securities of the Company shall be closed for the following purposes:-

- a. Declaration of financial results (quarterly/annual);
- b. Recommendation / Declaration of dividends;
- c. Issue of securities either through public/rights/bonus issue;
- d. Any major expansion plans or execution of new projects;
- e. Amalgamation, mergers, demergers, acquisitions, delisting;
- f. Disposal of the whole or substantially whole of the undertaking; and
- g. Any significant changes in policies, plans and operations of the Company.

However, the application for allotment of shares against Employee Stock Options and allotment of shares against the same may be carried out during the period of Trading window closure.

Trading Window Closure for Declaration of Financial Results: In respect of declaration of financial results (standalone & consolidated), the Trading Window can be closed from the end of every quarter till 48 hours after the declaration of financial results.

Trading Window Closure for declaration of dividend and other matters as mentioned in point nos. (b) to (g) above: In respect of point nos. (b) to (g) above and other matters, if any, the Trading Window shall be closed for such period as may be determined by Compliance Officer.

Designated persons and their Immediate Relatives shall not trade in securities when Trading Window is closed.

Opening of Trading Window: The Trading Window shall be opened 48 (forty eight) hours after the information referred to above is become generally available.

All the Designated Persons will conduct all their trading in the securities of the Company only when the trading window is open and will not carry out any transaction involving the purchase or sale of the Company's securities during the period in which "Trading Window" is closed or during any other period as may be specified by the Compliance Officer, from time to time.

The intimation of closure of Trading Window once given to the stock exchanges by the Company shall be deemed to be an intimation about trading window to all such persons who are required to abide by the Code.

Notwithstanding anything stated above, the Trading Window restrictions mentioned hereinabove shall not apply in respect of –

- (a) transactions specified in clauses (i) to (iv) and (vi) of the proviso to sub-regulation (1) of regulation 4 of the Regulation and in respect of a pledge of shares for a bona fide purpose such as raising of funds, subject to pre-clearance by the Compliance Officer and compliance with the respective regulations made by the Securities and Exchange Board of India;
- (b) transactions which are undertaken in accordance with respective regulations made by the Securities and Exchange Board of India, such as acquisition by conversion of warrants or debentures, subscribing to rights issue, further public issue, preferential allotment or tendering of shares in a buy-back offer, open offer, delisting offer or transactions which are undertaken through such other mechanism as may be specified by the Board from time to time.

7. FORMULATION OF TRADING PLAN:

- 7.1 Formulation of trading plan is a voluntary requirement and it is an option given to the persons who may be perpetually in possession of UPSI and enabling them to trade in securities in a compliant manner.
- 7.2 Designated Persons shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan & present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades shall be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.
- 7.3 Such trading plan shall not entail commencement of trading earlier than 120 days from public disclosure of plan.
- 7.4 Trading plan shall not overlap any period for which another trading plan is already in existence.
- 7.5 Trading plan shall set out following parameters for each trade to be executed:
 - (i) either the value of trade to be effected or the number of securities to be traded;
 - (ii) nature of the trade;

- (iii) either specific date or time period not exceeding five consecutive trading days;
- (iv) price limit, that is an upper price limit for a buy trade and a lower price limit for a sell trade, subject to the range as specified below:
 - a. for a buy trade: the upper price limit shall be between the closing price on the day before submission of the trading plan and upto twenty per cent higher than such closing price;
 - b. for a sell trade: the lower price limit shall be between the closing price on the day before submission of the trading plan and upto twenty per cent lower than such closing price.

While the parameters in sub-clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) shall be mandatorily mentioned for each trade, the parameter in sub-clause (iv) shall be optional.

- 7.6 Trading on basis of trading plan would not grant absolute immunity from bringing proceedings from market abuse.
- 7.7 Compliance Officer shall review the trading plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of these Regulations and shall be entitled to seek such express undertaking as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan.

Pre-clearance of trades shall not be required for a trade executed as per an approved trading plan. Further trading window norms shall also not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an approved trading plan.

- 7.8 The trading plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the designated persons shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of trading plan or to deviate from it except due to permanent incapacity or bankruptcy or operation of law. However, the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced, if any, UPSI in possession of the insider at the time of formulation of the plan has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation.
- 7.9 On approval of trading plan, the Compliance Officer shall notify the plan to the Stock Exchanges on which securities are listed within such time and in such format as may be prescribed by SEBI from time to time.
- 7.10 In case of non-implementation (full/partial) of trading plan, the following procedure shall be followed
 - (i) The Designated Person shall intimate non-implementation (full/partial) of trading plan to the compliance officer within two trading days of end of tenure of the trading plan with reasons thereof and supporting documents, if any.
 - (ii) Upon receipt of information, the compliance officer, shall place such information along with his/her recommendation to accept or reject the submissions of the insider, before the Audit Committee in the immediate next meeting. The Audit Committee shall decide whether such non-implementation (full/partial) was bona fide or not.

- (iii) The decision of the Audit Committee shall be notified by the compliance officer to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed within such time and in such format as may be prescribed by SEBI from time to time.
- (iv) In case the Audit Committee does not accept the submissions made by the Designated Person, it shall attract action as per the Code of Conduct.

8. PRE-CLEARANCE OF TRADES:

8.1 All Designated Persons who intend to trade in the securities of the Company above threshold limit (as defined below), will have to pre-clear the transactions as per the pre-clearance procedure given below:

Value of securities proposed to be traded whether in one transaction or a series of transactions in any calendar quarter, aggregates to a traded value in excess of ₹ 10,00,000/- (Rupees Ten Lakhs Only) will be the “threshold limit” for obtaining pre-clearance of trades and for making the disclosure to the Company except for off-market inter-se transfer between insiders who are in possession of UPSI.

The pre-clearance procedure shall be as under:

- i. Every Designated Person must make an application in Appendix I to the Compliance Officer;

For the Compliance Officer, pre-clearance is required to be taken from the Chairman / Managing Director of the Company;
- ii. Every Designated Person must sign and submit to the Compliance Officer, an undertaking / declaration as specified in Appendix II which will have inter alia the following details:
 - (a) That he/she does not have any access to, or has not received or is not in possession of any UPSI up to the time of signing the undertaking.
 - (b) That if he/ she has access to, or receives, any UPSI after the signing of the undertaking but before the execution of the transaction he/she will inform the Compliance Officer of the change in his position and that he/she would completely refrain from dealing in the securities of the Company till the time such information becomes generally available.
 - (c) That he/she has not contravened the Code as notified by the Company from time to time.
 - (d) That he / she has made a full and true disclosure in the matter.

Upon receipt of application and undertaking, Compliance Officer shall review the same and grant approval for trading within 2 trading days from the date of receipt of application and undertaking.

The approval will be given in the format prescribed in Appendix III. The said approval shall be valid for a maximum period of 5 (five) trading days, excluding the day of approval. While granting approval, the Compliance Officer shall have due regard to whether the declaration is reasonably capable of being rendered inaccurate.

Designated Persons shall execute their order in respect of the securities of the Company within five trading days excluding the day of approval, from the date of the approval of pre-clearance. If the order is not executed within five trading days from the date of the approval, the designated person must pre-clear the transaction again.

The details of the transactions including the total number of shares bought or sold or traded in any manner by the Designated Person, the date on which the order was executed and other details, will be intimated forthwith, not exceeding two (2) trading days from date of the transaction, to the Compliance Officer in Appendix IV (where the value of transaction ₹ 10 lakhs or less) or in Form C / such other Form as may be prescribed by SEBI pursuant to regulation 7(2) of the Regulations (where the value of transaction is equal to or exceeds ₹ 10 lakhs).

Designated person, if not executed the trade after securing per-clearance shall also report to the Compliance officer of such decision in Appendix IV.

9. OTHER RESTRICTIONS

- 9.1 All Designated persons who buy or sell any number of shares of the Company will not enter into an opposite transaction i.e. sell or buy any number of shares of the Company during the next six months following the prior transaction (“contra trade”). The Compliance Officer may grant relaxation from strict application of such restriction for reasons to be recorded in writing provided that such relaxation does not violate the Regulations.
- 9.2 Application for exercise of Options held by Option Grantees and allotment of shares against the same will not be considered as Contra Trade, as clarified by SEBI earlier. Shares allotted in ESOS, may also be sold within a period of Six months from the date of allotment which will not be considered as Contra Trade. However, once the shares acquired through ESOS are sold in the market, the restriction on buying would be applicable for next Six months.
- 9.3 If contra trade is executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of said restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the (SEBI) for credit to Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by (SEBI) under the act.
- 9.4 Designated Persons may take positions in derivative transactions in the Shares of the Company only as per applicable SEBI laws from time to time.

10. REPORTING REQUIREMENTS FOR TRANSACTIONS IN SECURITIES

- 10.1 “Initial Disclosures”: According to Regulation 7(1) (a) of the Regulations, every promoter, key managerial personnel and director of every company whose securities are listed on any recognized stock exchange shall disclose his holding of securities of the company as on the date of these regulations taking effect, to the company within thirty days of these regulations taking effect in Form A as specified in Appendix V.

Further, in terms of Regulation 7(1) (b) of the Regulations, every person on appointment as a Key Managerial Personnel or a Director of the Company or upon becoming a Promoter shall disclose in Form B or such other Form as may be prescribed by SEBI pursuant to regulation 7(1) (b) of the Regulations, his /her holding of securities of the company as on the date of appointment or becoming a promoter, to the Company within seven days of such appointment or becoming a promoter.

“Material financial relationship” mean a relationship in which one person is a recipient of any kind of payment such as by way of a loan or gift during the immediately preceding twelve months, equivalent to at least 25% of such payer’s annual income but shall exclude relationships in which the payment is based on arm’s length transactions.

- 10.4 The transaction pertaining to off-market inter-se transfer between insiders who were in possession of the same UPSI without being in breach of the Regulation, such off-market trade(s) shall be disclosed by the insiders to the company in Form C or such other Form as may be prescribed by SEBI pursuant to regulation 7(1) (b) of the Regulations within two working days.

10.5 Every Designated Person shall disclose the names of educational institutions from which he / she has graduated and names of past employers on a one time basis.

10.6 The Company shall maintain record of the disclosures made under this Code by Designated Persons for a minimum period of five years.

11. PENALTY FOR CONTRAVENTION OF THE CODE:

11.1. Any contravention of these Code by a Designation Person or his Immediate Relative or any other person with whom such Designated Person is deemed to have Material Financial Relationship shall result in appropriate disciplinary actions against such Designated Person in accordance with the Regulations and the Code which may include penalty, disgorgement of profit, cancellation of Employee Stock Options, wage freeze, suspension, recovery, etc.

11.2. The amount collected in form of penalty for violating this code shall be remitted to the SEBI for credit to investor protection and education fund administered by the board under the act.

11.3 The action taken by the Company will not preclude SEBI from taking any action in case of violation of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015.

12. INFORMATION TO SEBI IN CASE OF VIOLATION

In case it is observed by the Board of Directors of the Company that there has been a violation of Regulation, the Board of Directors to promptly inform the stock exchange(s) where the concerned securities are traded.

13. PROTECTION AGAINST RETALIATION AND VICTIMISATION

In compliance with Regulation 7(I) of the Regulations, no disciplinary actions shall be initiated against any employee for filing any Information/ Disclosure with SEBI under Chapter IIIA of the Regulations.

14. AMENDMENT(s)

The Compliance Officer may, in consultation with the Chairman and/ or the Managing Director, waive the strict application of this Code, on reasonable grounds on receipt of such application and also make such amendments to the Declarations / Forms specified under this Code as may be deemed necessary for its better implementation, from time to time.

If, due to subsequent changes in the Regulation, a particular Standard or any part thereof becomes inconsistent with the Regulation, the provisions of the Regulation shall prevail.
